- “It can take years to learn how to effectively teach a class of 25 or more students. But many people can be trained in a relatively short time to be a good one-on-one tutor.”

-Edweek.org

Competitive Landscape

What exists in this space?
How well does it work?
What problems still exist?
Are there similar experiences to learn from?

ADP List

Details
- Not a direct competitor but a similar opportunity
- ADP list matches industry mentors with students
- Mentors book directly from the platform with specific times
- View the profiles of mentors/mentees to see if it is a match
- Sort mentors by subject/topic
- Free
- Countries and industries all over the world

Opportunities for LRT
- Profiles for tutors so tutees can see who they could work with
- Potential to book directly from the site
- Would eliminate need for a matching tool

www.ADPlist.org

P2P Tutoring

Details
- Connects students with tutors
- Helps schedule sessions
- Provides a 24/7 shared workspace (whiteboard, video, and text chat)
- Pairs students with tutors who are similar age or have been thru the same material
- Tutors offer every session
- Apply to tutor or be tutored through a Google form
- Free
- Seems like it was started specifically for students who are frustrated but now for anyone
- Geared to high school students

Opportunities for LRT
- Provide live tutoring at shared workspace or video platform
- Provide something at shared workspace or video platform
- Were regular check-ins with tutors

www.p2ptutoring.org

EdRise

Details
- Serving students between 3rd and 8th grade
- Tutors are undergraduate and graduate students
- Thoroughly verified and qualified tutors
  - They have school transcript of their student ID
- Full range of standardized subjects
- Weekly 1-on-1 sessions for as long as you like
- Students have access to a library of free educational resources, and more programs coming soon
- Google forms are embedded on their site
- They offer a free coding bootcamp for kids 7-13
- They have learning resources for all different subjects (math, ELA, etc.)
- There's a place for students and tutors to give feedback right on the site
- All tutors listed on their site with images

Opportunities for LRT
- Verify tutors by asking for a student ID and recent transcripts
- Provide learning resources for tutors and tutees in an accessible location
- Showcase tutors on website
- Embed google forms on site
- Provide more opportunities for tutors/tutees to rate each other and give feedback

https://www.edrisetutoring.org/home

Wave Learning Festival

Details
- Free
- Tutors come from high schools and colleges "all over the world"
- Offers tutoring services- 1:1 or groups of up to 3
- There is a calendar widget on the site so students can see what times are booked
- Tutors are all
- They do have common core grad updates
- Similar to office hours where students can drop in and out
- No contact is made with tutors outside of the call
- Tutors need to send a copy of their transcripts to be approved
- Forms integrated on the site

Opportunities for LRT
- Calendar / scheduling through the site
- Office drop in help hours
- Have tutors submit transcripts to be verified
- Embed forms on site

www.wavefl.org

Schoolhouse.world

Details
- Designated sessions on specific topics that anyone can attend
- Group tutoring
- Free
- Award badges
- Owned by Khan Academy
- Peer-to-peer tutoring
- Anyone can be a tutor

Opportunities for LRT
- Office hours/topic-based drop in tutoring

TutorMe

Details
- St. Paul School District provides students with this service
  - Cost $3M for 5,000 hours
- On-demand tutors in minutes
- Costs money but there is a free trial period
- Matching system to connect students with tutors
- Use their own Zoom like platform with virtual whiteboard and chat box
- Rate student/tutor after the session
- Tutors are college students around the country
- Only 9% of tutors are accepted
- Students can be matched toward a session- some are online right away

Opportunities for LRT
- Position as free with a similar smart matching tool
- Provide a platform with virtual whiteboard
- Provide more opportunities for tutors/tutees to rate each other and give feedback
- Add feature to view profiles of tutors

www.tutorme.com

Secondary Research

What exists in this space?
How well does it work?
What problems still exist?
What's important to the audience members?
Are there similar experiences to learn from?

Importance of tutoring in the pandemic

Details
- Learning loss was more conducive to customized instructions and closing learning gaps
- Students develop relationships with their tutors
- Tutoring is increasing students' confidence
- Tutoring is expensive
- Governments in other countries supplement tutoring
- "It can take years to learn how to effectively teach a class of 25 or more students. But many people can be trained in a relatively short time to be a good one-on-one tutor."
- Unpaid volunteers are generally less effective than paid tutors
- Research shows tutoring should be woven throughout the school day
- 3 times/week is ideal
- Follow up training is important– not just one training session

Opportunities for LRT
- Keep groups small(1:1)
- Provide opportunities to connect with each other to mitigate isolation (chats and more frequently)
- Provide more robust and consistent training materials

https://www.edweek.org/ew/articles/2020/10/14/tutoring-can-help-students-recover-this-fix-makes.html?cmp=SOC-SHR-FB

COVID-19 inspiring students to create free tutoring services

Details
- A ton of students all over the country/world saw the need that Jingle saw and started similar tutoring services in their areas
- Some already existing student-run tutoring services shifted their programming to be remote when the pandemic hit
- Article lists many different organizations similar to Living Room Tutors

Opportunities for LRT
- Check out social presence of other student-run tutoring services and try to engage
- Work with these services, not against

https://www.thecrimson.com/article/2020/12/10/tutoring-resources-students/

Demand for Tutoring- Star Tribune

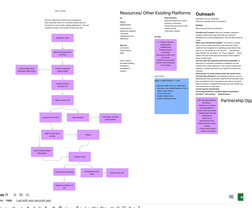
Details
- Biggest challenge is getting students who are already struggling to use tutoring services
- Teachers are stressed– spending more time addressing the emotional needs of students
- Families who can afford tutoring have increased, while others have dropped off

Opportunities for LRT
- Outreach to schools/teachers in Twin Cities metro area
- Offer resources for emotional support of students
- Emphasize that it is FREE

https://www.startribune.com/demand-for-in-person-tutoring-soars-as-students-and-families-struggle-with-remote-learning/600714852/

Living Room Tutors

What exists in this space?
How well does it work?
What problems still exist?
What's important to the audience members/ decision makers/ influencers?
Where/how are there opportunities to make a change to this experience?



Opportunity Areas

- Profiles for tutors so tutees can see who they could work with
- Potential to book directly from the site
  - Would eliminate need for a matching loc
- Provide scheduling assistance for tutors and tutees
- Provide some sort of shared workspace or video platform
- Offer drop in help hours/ office hours
- Verify tutors by asking for a student ID and recent transcripts
- Provide learning resources for tutors and tutees in an accessible location
- Showcase tutors on website
- Embed google forms on site
- Provide more opportunities for tutors/tutees to rate each other and give feedback
- Position as free with a similar smart matching system
- Provide a platform with virtual whiteboard
- Provide more opportunities for tutors/tutees to rate each other and give feedback
- Add feature Wawgroups emails? ?
- Incentivize tutors/tutees to stick with each other for longer periods of time and more frequently
- Provide more robust and consistent training materials
- view profiles of tutors
- Check out social presence of other similar student-run tutoring services and try to engage
- Work with these services, not against
- Outreach to schools/teachers in Twin Cities metro area
- Offer resources for emotional support of students
- Emphasize that it is FREE!Create a module that needs to be completed step-by-step
- Create an account and register through the website
- Embed google form in website (is that possible?)
- Create a module that needs to be completed step-by-step (even if it's just a Google doc embedded on the website)
- Create a scheduling portal
- Improve training on unique needs of students with learning disabilities
- Promote on TikTok

All user experience touchpoints for Living Room Tutors will help tutees and tutors to feel secure and/or supported and confident so that they are able to learn/ practice new material and/or skills.

We will do this by focusing on creating a safe and reliable space through streamlined outreach and continuous training processes.

As a result we hope to see improved tutor and tutee engagement and academic performance, as measured by increased enrollment numbers and self-rated improvement scores.

Will help _____ (specific user groups)

To feel _____ and/or _____ (emotions)

So that they are able to _____ (goal they are trying to accomplish)

We will do this by focusing on _____ and _____. (themes or approaches)

Throughout the week:

As a result we hope to see a change in _____ and _____. (metrics)

Website

Details
- Sign up front and center
- Major need to knows all on the home page
- About the organization and the board
- Effort to be engaged in the community in-person
- Donation button goes to a donate site with a $5k goal

Opportunities
- Automated matching system
- Scheduling tool
- Meet the tutors section

Digital Registration Forms

Details
- Register to be a tutor using Google Forms
- Tutors: Fill out name, grade level, subjects they can tutor, how often can tutor, time you can devote to tutoring, how many tutees you can take, other support you offer
- Tutees: student name, parents name, grade level, school, 3 subjects they need support in, details, language, other
- Liability statement

Opportunities
- Create an account and register through the website
- Embed google form in website (is that possible?)

Emails

Details
- Key to keep track of tutors and tutees
- Matching is all done manually atm but Zoey would like we something more comprehensive
- Manually send matching emails
- Tutor: email contains a guide matched with a tutee; email contains a tutor guide and training modules (both google docs)
- Tutee: email contains information matched with a tutor; email contains information when child is matched with a tutor; email contains a tutee guide

Opportunities
- Automated emails (MailChimp?)
- Move away from google docs for training modules (Google Forms is not ideal) (new! if it's just a Google doc embedded on the website)

Training Module

Details
- Module 1: Virtual meeting platforms, ideas for supplementary materials (Khan Academy, IXL)
- Module 2: Tutor Etiquette, organization, email communication, boundaries
- Module 3: Communication skills
- Module 4: Subject-specific tips
- Module 5: Cultural competency

Opportunities
- Create a module that needs to be completed step-by-step
  - Explore ways to do this (Courses? Something free?)

Marketing materials

Details
- Letter that is sent to elementary schools explaining the program as a potential way to help their tutees
- Letter that is sent to high school/college volunteer clubs to recruit more tutors
- Letter that is sent to try to recruit tutors from high schools
- Balanced outreach when its balanced, or heavy in direction they're lacking

Opportunities
- Social media advertising

Matchmaking tool

- Currently Zoey is solely responsible for manually matching tutors with tutees

Survey feedback

Details
- Students enjoyed meeting other people
- Parents were overall satisfied
- Tutors were unreliable or uncommunicative
- Appreciate that it's free
- Children listen to tutors more than their parents
- Tutors are not provided with any resources
- Tutors are not always equipped to handle educational needs of students

Opportunities
- Create a scheduling portal
- Improve training on unique needs of students with learning disabilities

Social media

Details
- Marketing materials say that Remind, Google Classroom, and Social Media are how they communicate their information
- 194 IG followers
- 27 FB followers
- TikTok but they don't use it
- Good branding, but a bit advertise-y
- Tutoring tips
- Application reminders
- Events

Opportunities
- Promote on TikTok
  - As a formal social media manager, I have found that TikTok is a great way to promote things by advertising themselves there
  - Totally free! Just need one viral one
  - Their audience is all there